Renata Salecl - The Tyranny of Choice • Hurry Slowly

In her book The Tyranny of Choice, published by Profile Books in 2011, Renata Salecl argues that we have become oppressed by the idea of individual choice and the constant worry that we might make the wrong decisions. She argues that too much personal choice about who we want to be and what we should consume — and the ever-present pressure to make the “right” choices — not only makes us less happy, but also distracts us from more important social choices and playing a useful role ...
